

General

Why doesn't the information in my template show when I apply the template to a document?

This may be because the information in your template is not inside a header and/or footer. NovaCore templates only apply header and footer information to your documents so if you do not place the information in the header or footer section, NovaCore assumes the information is in the body of the document and ignores it.

Unique solution ID: #1047

Author: NovaCore

Last update: 2019-07-01 05:35